P R E F A C E

This deck came into your hands by word of mouth, either mine, clients, or my obscure Great Mother Speaks newsletter. I channeled them while in the depths of my dark night of the soul and used them to dig myself out of the pit of hell I used to call my life. My intention is that Great Mother speaks to you along your Yellow Brick Road through the signs and symbols of the deck.

Great Mother Speaks readings pick you up when you fall, guides us back onto our pathway home, and answers everything from our tiniest inquiry to our most pressing questions, always allowing us the freedom to listen.

How to Work With This Oracle

Transitioning from a black and white to a technicolor world means we are able, willing and available to answer each of these questions the best we can at any given time. "Do I stay or do I go?" "Do I proceed or go back?" "Trust the angel, or stay with the devil I know?" "Do I make new friends or go it alone?" "Do I dance with integrity or be destroyed by insanity?" "Do I hold onto the past, or trust the present?"

Letting go of the past is hard when we are unprepared and/or scared. Whether we are trying to break free of unproductive habits or constantly running into trouble trying to carry on how we were raised with our own children, knowing how to switch things up for the better eludes the best of us.

I N T R O D U C T I O N

The black and white path is about embracing the conscious journey by creating and maintaining the boundaries you need to course correct.

The whole time, Dorothy is trying to get home, so each spread let's you know whether you are in the beginning, middle or end of your technicolor journey home. Our greatest aspiration is to honor where we are on our unique Yellow Brick Road. Even if we do not know where our path leads until the end, or even after of our journey, wouldn't it be nice to at least know where we are in it?

Before embarking on this journey, you must make the Obligatory Announcement that you are going away and will return when you are healed. Whether you need make a physical demographic move, or emotional space, allow yourself to tell people so they can real size their expectations of you for a while.

WHY WE DO NOT CHANGE

We do not change because we lack:

- 1) Clarity which makes us indecisive because there is no score card of payoff, and we therefore have a tendency second-guess ourselves and play into the myth that the pain or challenge will go away faster if it is ignored;
- 2) Balance which makes us go from one extreme to the next because of feelings of overwhelm, believing it is too hard (No road map). The irony is that the more imbalanced we are, more important we feel it is to “be strong” in the face of loss;
- 3) Confirmation because our internal signals are too weak to gauge what is true for us, and our intuition has been ignored so much, it has stopped speaking to us which can become an exercise in pride digging our heels into the grave, if we are not humble enough to change.

WHY GOD/DESS NARRATIVES ARE USED

Gods and goddesses are not idols to be worshipped, but models of how to successfully break a particular life changing code. They are archetypes embodying personality elements common to us and through them illustrate our divinity as children of the Great Mother Father God.

Each one symbolizes a chakra, moon phase that models how to successfully break a particular life changing code to bring your aspirations out of the shadows into the light. Like Dorothy Gale's, their resurrection narratives, are embedded in the human psyche.

The reinvention of the ego through the fire of soul intention is the greatest life change we will ever make. Whether we aspire to change from shy to social; from controlling to accepting; enraged to relaxed, or ashamed to esteemed, these archetypes show us that in the process, the only person we can change is ourselves.

Meet the forty one variant manifestations of Great Mother Great Father energies in this deck, and see who shows up for you.

WHY THE WIZARD OF OZ?

20th century goddess, Dorothy Gale, changed. Heroine of her own life, her story is a universal step by step guide to grieve and release the past and boldly live in real time.

Clarity - Ultimately, by trusting her heart, Dorothy maintained a direct line of communication with her soul which allowed trust in her intuition.

Balance - The Wizard taught Dorothy to act accepting her weaknesses but not allowing imperfection to limit her potential.

Confirmation - Guidance she received from Toto and Glinda the Good Witch symbolize intuition, and how actively working with it pays off by dispelling:

- the false belief in the nobility of suffering>We do not know her true self
- illusions that no longer exist
- the fear of mortality
- confusing our true self with an image or persona
- the fear of God and of one's higher self

OZ SIGNS & SYMBOLS

FARM HANDS/SCARECROW, TIN MAN AND LION - helpmates; soul journey companions, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th chakras

DOROTHY - orphan, MDT sufferer, wounded healer, intuition, destiny and free will, blue and white, 5th chakra, innocence and moon cycles.

TOTO - loyal pet, spirit familiar, destiny and free will, purple and blue, 7th and 5th chakras

GALE FARM - orphan house, family home

AUNT EM & UNCLE HENRY - soul mates, guardians, black and white, 1st and 6th chakras. Aunt Em represents the mother who prioritizes society and its perceptions at the expense of the child. Dorothy doesn't understand why it's more important what society demands than what she needs. Toto represents soul destiny and ego free will.

MISS GULCH, WICKED WITCH OF THE EAST AND WICKED WITCH OF THE WEST - Wicked, Devouring Mother, purifying fire, 3rd chakra

PROFESSOR MARVEL/ WIZARD OF OZ - Great Father, green, 4th chakra; represents wisdom and the beneficial use of will (yin/magician).

GLINDA THE GOOD WITCH - Great Mother, purple, represents wisdom and the beneficial use of will (yang/wand), 7th chakra

RED RUBY SHOES - root chakra (grounding, direction)

YELLOW BRICK ROAD - yellow, the rainbow, gut, 3rd chakra

EMERALD CITY - green, heart chakra (decision, destiny and free will, 5th chakra)

Finally, The Little Black Book decodes Dorothy's journey through the chakras because these layers of consciousness form us and represent the Yellow Brick Road to Loving Detachment, the focus of the book.

Healing is about progress, not perfection. Each of us must walk our own Yellow Brick Road. Never alone, but no one can walk it for us.

TRANSITION FROM A BLACK & WHITE TO A TECHNICOLOR WORLD

What prevents us from processing the present are imbalanced mental and emotional energies caused by over commitments to people and situations that no longer serve us; painful memories, or traumas, worrying and too much background noise. Again, the ASPIRATION is to release toxicity and integrate a technicolor spectrum of all things that affirm life.

THE SUITS

Angels

Angels, guides and ancestors support and guide us in growing in self love and spiritual independence. They appear to reinforce our ability to love and accept our power as the divinely magnificent and splendidly perfect children of the Great Mother Father God. (Acknowledgment- Processing INSTINCT (heart below)) They remind us grieving is a necessary part of living a fulfilled life, and how to do so with loving detachment. (Integrity - Emancipation INTUITION (heart above))

Yin Yang Laws

As above so below. We are born of a male and female, have therefore have masculine feminine energies are within us. Great Mother inspires action. Great Father speaks life into existence through the Law. Aligning ourselves with the innerGY (inner God You) of emotional honesty and the observance of these laws brings us back to equilibrium.

Healing yin yang imbalances is a lifelong process of recovery and relapse, but a card from this suit indicates where you are in this ongoing process, and the energy needed in the inquired situation to properly manage it.

The Moon

While it takes two and a half days for the moon to transit a constellation, it takes a full month for it to move through the chakras. Therefore, noting the actual sign and phase the moon during readings provides more specific insights as each corresponds to a sign and its ruling planet.

All life forms have cycles of birth, growth, death, and renewal that are mirrored in the progressive phases of the moon cycle. The moon cycle has 29.5 days, changing from the waxing new moon of increasing light, to the full moon of total illumination, to the dark waning moon of decreasing light, and back to the waxing new moon of increasing light again. Month after month, the moon cycle mirrors the kundalini, or the latent yin innerGY (inner God You) coiled in the root chakra as it rises to the crown and beyond.

A better understanding of the moon cycle and its rhythms and energetic influences can help us better appreciate the rhythmic dance of our own Yellow Brick Road, and how to be in harmony with it rather than at odds with it.

It takes many moons to travel through the Chakra's. The time it takes is unique for each of us. Each chakra holds an intrinsic energy unique to it. When this energy is lost through consistent and persistent abuse, it relies on the collective unconscious, or the energy embedded in lunar cycles to sustain it.

The new way forward is to live the lunar lessons of each chakra in the waning balsamic, mostly dark moon with only a sliver of light.

The sun's light is most powerful when it is shadowed by the full moon. The moon's shadow looms largest and is most greatly felt when it eclipses the light of the sun in the new moon. Between these phases the energy of the moon waxes and wanes. The eight phases symbolized in this deck are the new, crescent, first quarter, gibbous, full, waning gibbous, third quarter, and balsamic moon cards.

Chakras

Chakras are part of an energy system that sustains our unique body mind equilibrium. Root to gut chakras primarily manage our masculine or body energy field, the heart to eighth chakra manage our feminine or mind energy field.

A.S.P.I.R.E.

Having a particular health challenge, disease or illness? Look at the health issues related to that chakra section to receive guidance for recovery and relapse in this suit. Honor the supremacy of the soul by accepting the Divinity it seeks in physical form, the ego.

RECOVERY & RELAPSE:

Recovery requires we reroot ourselves lovingly reflecting, resetting and realigning ourselves with the people, places and philosophies that truly make us feel at home in our own skin.

Upon Dorothy's return from the Yellow Brick Road, she is greeted by her soul group of friends and family who have been on the journey with her all along as she learns to live in "Loving Detachment"- accepting what is as it is with gratitude and peace.

Perhaps a prolonged period (maybe even lifetimes) of recovery and relapse into some form of fear, addiction or illness is now over. It has run its course as a result of you finding emotional and spiritual equilibrium through a strong sense of personal empowerment (ego manifestation) and a serene sense of the flow of life (living in real time/the now/the soul breath).

Like Dorothy, at the end of our Yellow Brick Journey, we are extremely exhausted which is why we must guard ourselves from relapsing into newly released patterns of thoughts, attitudes and behaviors. This is where Dorothy finds herself upon her return home: in bed resting and recuperating in the balsamic moon phase.

PREPARE YOUR DECK

Consecrate cards: Before doing a reading, cleanse your deck in the light of the full moon, with sage, palo santo, or what ever ritual energetically aligns the deck to your heart chakra. Cleanse the space you will be doing your reading and say a prayer inviting Great Mother to speak to you.

Shuffle cards: Shuffle and cut cards until you feel ready to ask your question and lay your spread.

ACKNOWLEDGE

One God, One Law

You are undergoing a major life change since your incarnation. You are ending a path, a journey, or a significant chapter in your life, and adjusting to the new one. Know that you have a lot of angelic, guide and ancestral support with you as you make this transition: recuperating, reflecting, recreating and releasing the past.

When this card appears, a silent offense or an unspoken need must be acknowledged. Take notice of exactly where you are in your life as only by knowing and acknowledging where you are and how you feel are you able to make improvements and changes that suit who you truly are, and how you wish your life to be.

ACKNOWLEDGE

One God One Law

Embody a new perspective. Rest. Safe again, Back home.

NUT

The Orphan

You didn't cause it, you cannot cure, or control the abusive behavior others direct towards you.

Though the disdain someone may have of you, or you feel about this situation is not new, its reason is a mystery.

When this card appears, you are being mysteriously guided beyond the veil of separation where we all feel orphaned, lonely and alone until we see accept the veil for what it is.

As the old folks used to sing, "We will understand it by and by."

NUT

The Orphan

Motherlessness, the mystery of life, feeling alone, rejected, dejected and neglected for reasons unknown. No rhyme or reason, kneeling humility.

BIRTH MOTHER

Soul Mate

When this card appears, you need to say, "Ouch"! Stop pretending it doesn't matter your maternal needs not being met.

Your Birth Mother is who you want or need at this time, but because she is unavailable, unwilling or unable to mother you, "other mothers" in the form of aunts, teachers, sisters, grandmothers are who you get.

Though grateful for maternal figures who step up when she steps down, tell your birth mother you are hurt so your pain can be healed. Perhaps you have told her, but instead of addressing your needs, she ignored you, or even worse, denied you are even in pain or any form of discomfort. Like Dorothy, maybe she is somewhere over the rainbow...

Time to recognize you feel emotionally unmothered. The darkest shade is the shame and unworthiness denial of this produces. It devalues the intuition, symbolized by Toto, that tells you you deserve to be lovingly mothered, and if necessary, to Mother yourself.

Other mothers, unsatisfied maternally, maternal dissatisfaction, you or someone you know needs tender loving care.

BIRTH MOTHER

Soul Mate

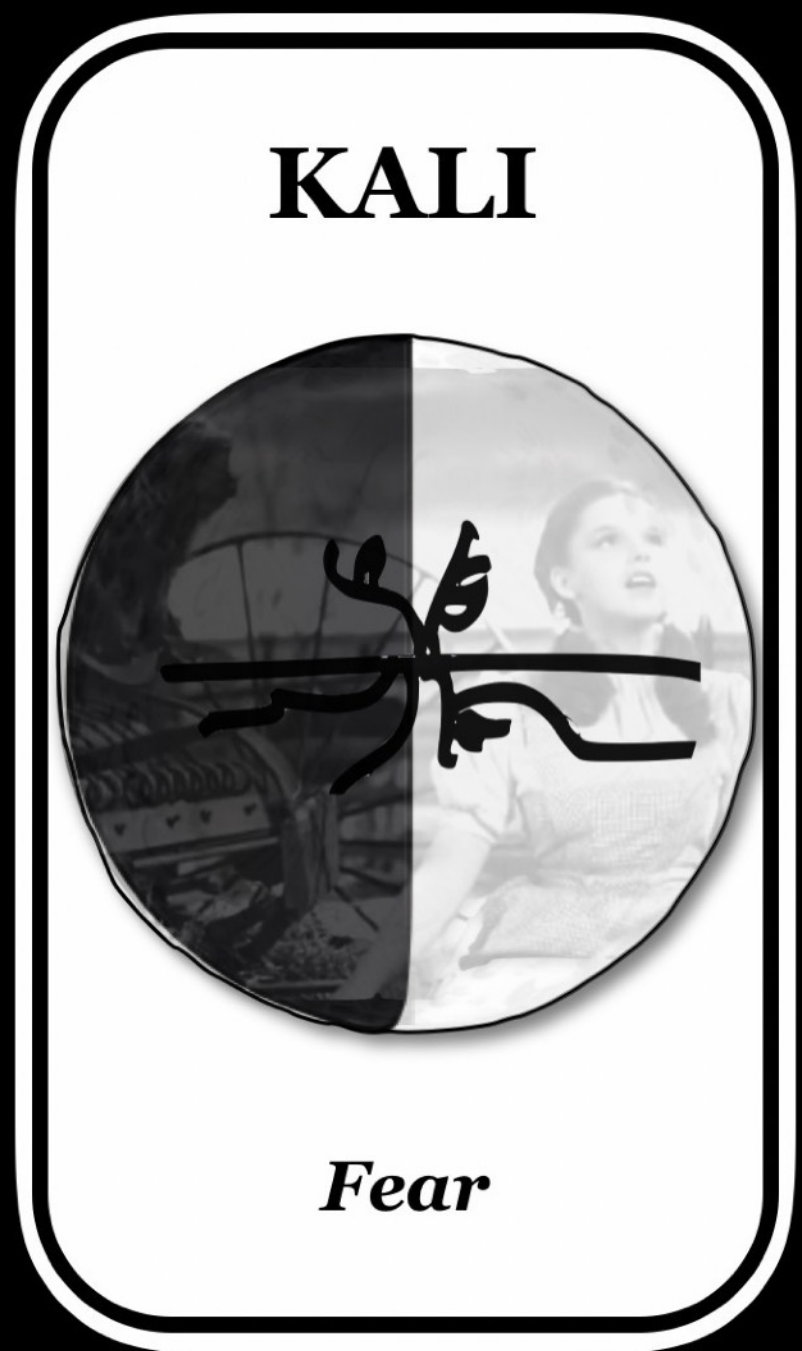

KALI

Fear

All you have is yourself. You are all you need to transform this situation from fear, feelings of loss and isolation into deep appreciation, empowering appreciation of your inner resources.

Fear famously connects us to our protective instincts while keeping us disconnected from our intuition.

Your present dance with fear is inviting you to go toe to toe with it, not allowing the opinions or two cents of others to deter you from facing and transforming its intoxicating effects into the insight you need.

Scared, not knowing who to turn to forces internal validation.

SEKMET

Rage

You are suppressing your anger which is keeping it from becoming the ally you need to heal what hurts.

This card invites you to live in loving detachment from hurt people who hurt people. Know an intentional, disrespectful line has been crossed causing you righteous indignation against the offending person, place or situation. However, once acknowledged, align with rage and allow it to empower your ability to not take the actions, attitudes and behaviors of others personally, no matter how personal it is.

The way to back to equilibrium for you is to accept your just due is inevitable, unlimited and unpredictable. Feel the rage and make it your ally by expressing it in life affirming ways.

Justified anger, righteous indignation, suppressed anger, make anger about this person or situation your ally.

SEKMET

Rage

ISIS

Self Mothering

So you have trusted your intuition, stated it, and no one supports you. Sometimes instead of defending it, the greatest thing you can do is take care of you. As challenging as it is at times, if we do not own our intuitive feelings, we will lose our intuitive capacity to use it. This card says it is time to love and nurture your heart's messages even if it makes you the odd man out. Love yourself enough to allow them to illuminate your path to bliss, joy and acceptance. They will. They are!

Do like Dorothy, sit or lie down on the ground and go into self protection mode. Self mother to console, comfort and nurture yourself right now.

Know that whatever you go through, your intuition is worth protecting, and because you did, it will return to you stronger and even more clear.

ISIS

Self Mothering

Self care, prioritize personal needs for self, self preservation.

PACHAMAMA

Earth Mother

Mother Nature is calling you to her to heal an abuse, abandonment or mistreatment of some kind. Your entire life has been uprooted forcing you to leave a situation or relationship. Whispering greener pastures call you to your bliss. Will you answer?

A nature retreat such as pond gazing, camping, a beach walk, a mountain hike or a serene sit in the backyard under a tree in solitude for as long as you need is what's in order.

During this special time away, you will be embraced by Mother Nature, your course corrected and your perspective purified.

PATCHAMAMA

Earth Mother
ground trees sea faeries

*Need to leave current person or situation, "break camp", Vamos!,
time to vamp, commune with nature.*

AKHENATEN

Law of Mystery & Divine Order

Root chakra, third quarter moon axis is the intersection of groundedness and release. Letting go of survival guilt, releasing shame for your existence caused by birth mother, earth mother, motherland, or your birthright to inner wisdom, healing, guidance, nurturing, and compassion from Great Mother, the Holy Spirit, The Comforter, or That Still Small Voice of intuition.

"Mothers" (e.g. earth mother, mother country, mothership, and your birthright to inner wisdom, healing, guidance, nurturing, compassion, etc.); soles of feet. You realize there is a problem here, or must do so in order to accept healing of maternal issues.

*You are experiencing some form of abandonment and abuse.
See something for what it is. Self protect and/or make your move.*

SELF INQUIRY

Earth Father

You cannot go back, only forward so make changes accordingly...or, they will be made for you.

The Work, according to Byron Katie, is to question every thought, idea, judgment or belief that causes you suffering. Don't just let it barge in the door with muddy shoes and sit down on the couch. Stop it at the door.

Ask the suffering thought who it is, why it is here, what it wants. Listen and give it what it wants in payment for your peace.

SELF INQUIRY

Earth Father

Follow inner knowing to the best of your ability, question any and all ideas, beliefs, thoughts or judgements that cause suffering.

HATHOR

Pleasure Principle

You don't know where you're going but you feel like anyplace is better than where you came.

Instead of worrying about how things will work out, put your time and energy into holding positive thoughts and expectations about what you truly desire.

Be still, sit with that feeling deeply breathing. Ask yourself, "What is seeking to emerge in my life, or, "What is the universe up to in my life?" This is not about what family, friends, and co-workers may think or want for you at this moment.

It is time to be clear: Are you running from fear, or following your bliss? That still, small voice".

Be clear about your bliss, enjoy the process of discovering your bliss, yourself, your life path, purpose and beyond, dance, sing, drum, play; intuitive unction.

HATHOR

Pleasure Principle

SEDNA

The Victim

For good reason there is real trepidation in moving forward. Creating the life you want is difficult, but keep going. It is easy to get off path right now because you are not clearly intuiting your highest good, so following persistent internal guidance feels impossible.

As everything in life, this too shall pass, and the experience will fortify your understanding and comprehension of your intuitive guidance. In the meantime, resist the temptation to get caught in your shadow desire to be pitied instead of respected for the divine being you are due to a temporary lapse in judgment.

Soon, you will be offered another chance to take back the reins of your life, but first you must more clearly and firmly answer, "What do I most desire now?", and "Where am I going?"

SEDNA

Victim

Determine what you want and what you are going to do to get it instead of whining about what you do not have.

RHIANNON

Self Doubt

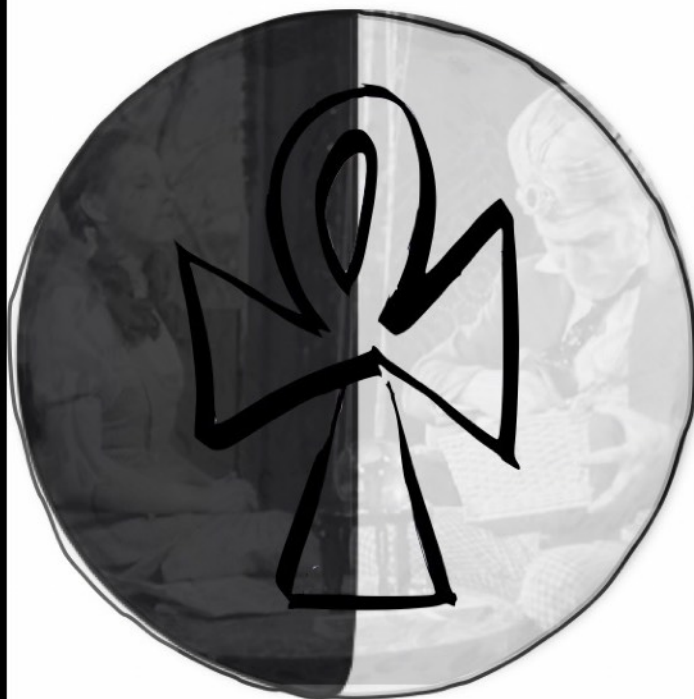

No one knows you better than you. Rhiannon comes to tell you to trust your inner wisdom. If not now, then when? With or without the input or approval of anyone else, this card is assurance that if you have unwavering faith in yourself, the realignment of all perceived obstacles will transpire within Divine and Perfect Timing.

Not even escaping to see the great crowns of Europe can make one exempt from suffering self doubt. Seize insecurities and identify them as opportunities to strengthen your resolve.

Know with all certainty that that which is vibrating out of alignment with your truth and integrity will find right balance. Stand strong. You are enough as you are regardless how things may presently appear. Instead of doubting yourself, ask yourself, "How much power will I allow to flow through me?" and, "How will I use it?"

You are right. Do not allow self doubt to throw you off your game. The path you are on seems too hard to go it alone, but for better or worse, stay the course.

RHIANNON

Self Doubt

IXCHEL

Self Creation

You have the power, but out of fear of the unknown, you are letting someone else decide who you are, what you do and where you go.

Do not rely upon others to define who you are, how you live your life or what you are capable of. Well intended or not, only you know what is best for you in this situation.

Set your own standards, step up and embrace your own powers of creation and direct your attention to what you want for your life, rather than react to what others may foist upon you.

Whose opinion, insight or judgment is most reliable here? Dorothy gives her power away to Professor Marvel who gives her a "reading".

This card is appearing because an important truth is being concealed from you and you are making a rash decision because you don't have all the facts. Carefully and methodically discern the truth of the situation and act from there.

You are getting played, yet there is something you are getting out of the situation or relationship.

ISHTAR

Prostitute

Time to take a closer look at what is happening, and consider your needs and wants before proceeding.

We must all give of ourselves in order to receive which is why prostitution is the oldest profession.

Here, the issue is not whether or not one prostitutes, but rather how one does.

Is the way in which you are giving of yourself to receive your basic means of physical support debasing or honoring you? Does it strip you of value or empower you with more value?

Doing someone else's bidding out of guilt does not serve you. Suffering the karma of trusting someone else's value judgement of you over your own assessment of what is best for you is painful, and a diversion.

Not everything is negotiable. Time to ask, "What must I become to manifest the vision I am becoming?/or, beginning to see?"

You are getting played, yet there is something you are getting out of the situation or relationship.

ISHTAR

The Prostitute

ADISHAKTI

Primordial Mother

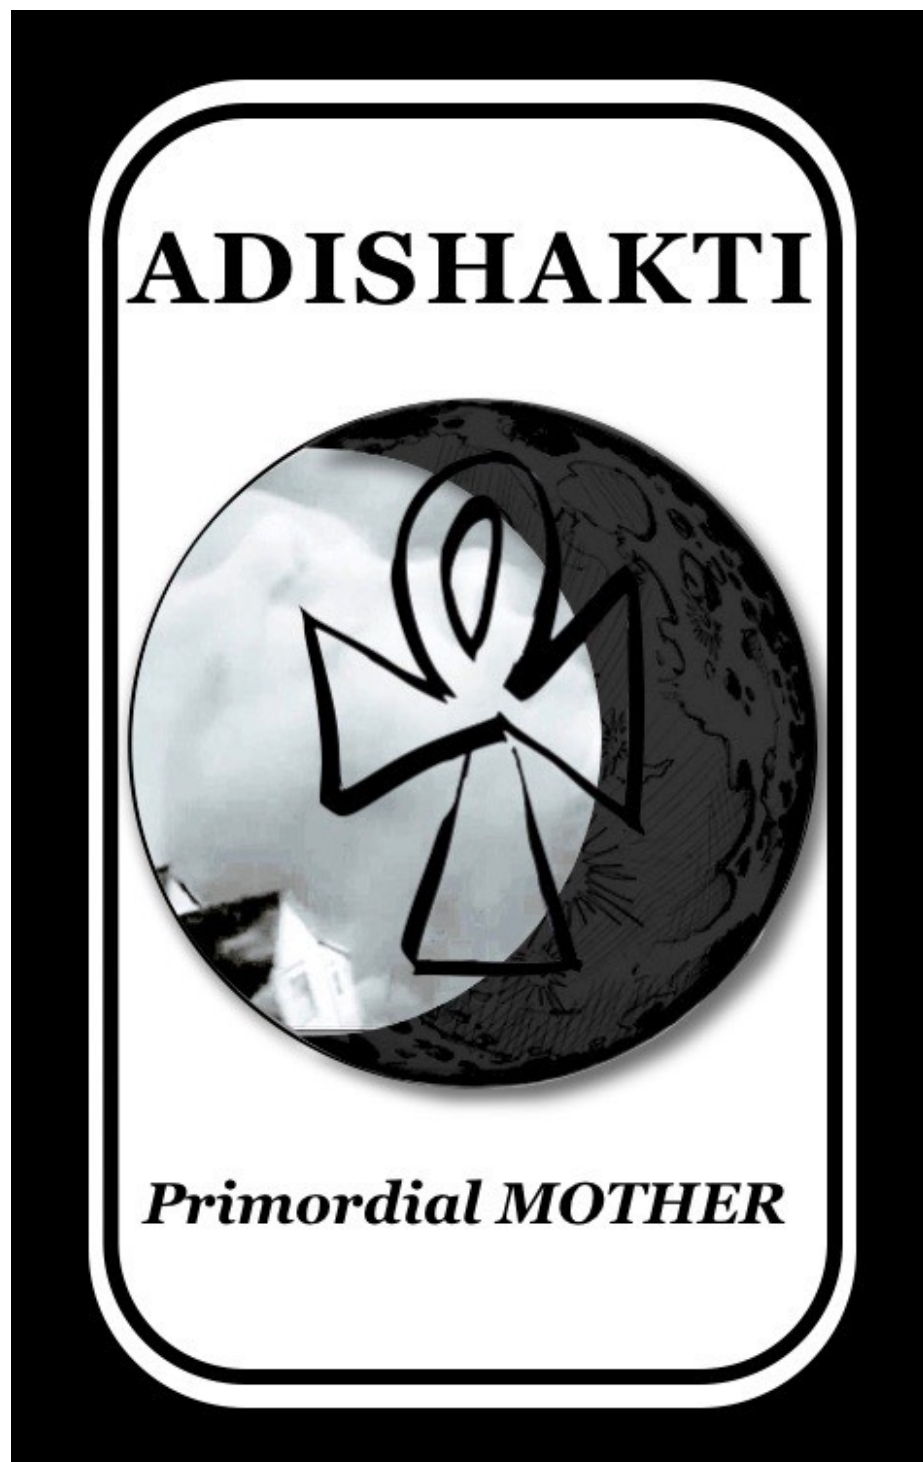

Do not abandon yourself or your own peace. Pay attention to your waking and sleeping dreams for guidance because an opportunity to trace your steps and come again is near.

The mother within, that wise, loving, kind part of you is presenting as chaos in your life. Unexpected course correction is necessary in order for your soul's intent for this situation to be honored.

When this card appears be vigilantly aware of from where you are downloading your highest life's vision.

Once we have made a decision to follow our soul's path, like an ancient stone path, Great Mother will call on the powers of nature to direct you through the provision of signs and symbols. If we are unwilling, unable or unavailable to see, sense, hear, taste or feel what we need to be brought back into our wholeness-holiness-healing-wellness, our world will be shaken-turned upside down until we are.

*Time to open up to receive direction from your unconscious mind.
You have done all you can do.*

THE DAGDA

Law of Divine Mother

Sacral chakra, third quarter moon axis is the intersection of ego surrender to soul desire.

Go toward your bliss bringing balance through determined action and purely inspired will. The double yin returns to yin yang balance by creatively shaping fortunate circumstances through one's own will and expectations, and internal guidance.

Instead of worrying about how things will work out, put your time and energy into holding positive thoughts and expectations about what you truly desire.

If something about a situation doesn't feel right, reconsider your options and listen to your inner-knowing for the answer to every question. How you know the difference between the monkey mind and intuition is by asking ourselves, "Am I running away from fear or toward my bliss"?

*Listen to yourself. Now is the time to stop delaying and act on what you know.
You have enough information to make the right decision for you.*

PROCESSING

Every Mother

How do we will ourselves not to live in the past or the future, but in real time?

By processing our emotions as soon as they come up, they are expended, amended, accepted and forgiven with sharing compassion, nurturing and humor.

This card reminds you, you cannot do the emotional work of anyone else.

Though you may feel compelled to ignore your own work, or cross that boundary into someone else's because of an insult, or a slight, ask:

Where am I? Who am I with? What do I really feel right now? How did I will this into existence? Where am I going?" (Am I moving toward "feeling good or guilty?" Is home where my heart is? Who gets to decide? Do I know what is true for me? 6) Am I creating what I really want in my life right now? ("Am I a conscious actor on the stage of my own life? ("Do I and all I procreate come from stars or dirt?")

PROCESSING

Every Mother

*You accept you are loved but do not feel heard. Now what?
Deep, gut reactions, visceral responses.*

DURGA

Boundaries

Making the unconscious conscious. You feel you have started walking a new path, and you're right. You just don't clearly see it yet. Awareness you live between conscious and unconscious realities is disorienting, but realize you are in the process of aligning with your soul and its intent for incarnation. Your body, mind is imbued with the perfect spiritual DNA to happily, healthfully and wholly walk this path. You should know you are dearly loved and supported to live this life, and that your free will to do so or not will not change this.

Adjustment to awakening the self from the dream/to reality threshold requires we set clear interior boundaries governing how we and others mentally interact with us.

Crossing threshold into a new world, or need to define, establish or maintain boundaries.

PELE

Awakening

Only you can define you. Allow your truth to erupt so you can clearly see where and who you are in real time.

It will better serve you to base your interactions with others on something more than appearances.

Personal authority is asserted in what you make it mean. Now is the time to ask the question, "How is the world I have defined for myself supporting, loving and guiding my confidence and esteem to live in the technicolor world I see in my soul's eye?"

When we are clear about our wants, needs, limitations, and know how far we can and will go to meet them, it makes conveying this to others clearer and easier for us to receive the assistance we truly need.

Pele has entered your life to encourage you to reveal your power to yourself and others in ways that enhance your relationships, self-esteem and confidence, and your life in general.

*Are you a food witch or a bad witch?
Recognize your true power and how you choose to use it.*

MOSES

Living & Learning the Law

The love and adoration people are showing you is real and sincere. You mean a lot to them and they really want you to know it as much as they can show it! You have done something wonderful but are oblivious to it. To receive praise you will need to accept what you have done, see it from their perspective and then appreciate how far you have come to do so.

Don't miss the opportunity to explore new insights about yourself, or to use your personal will to your utmost advantage and to the advantage of others.

What you have done or created in this situation may seem strange, but ask yourself: "Why did I will this into existence?," and remember, life is a co-creative process between the ego and the soul, so stop being ashamed of your true self, gifts, talents and abilities.

Others clearly see your shadow struggle. In fact, it is the pink elephant in the room everyone loves and adores, so why are you ashamed of it? That's the only thing making it dark. Have you considered all the facts of your case? Self indictment without a fair trial is madness.

Trust your gut! Caught in past struggles, cannot see others are celebrating your progress, disoriented, confused and ashamed.

LILITH

Personal Power

You feel alienated from your power and are therefore unable to assert your will in this situation. Will power requires purpose to survive. Each of us incarnate with purpose, therefore it is our birthright to fulfill it.

Be mindful of the abundance of intuitive hits and the signs around you. Circumstances and people encouraging you to own how you truly feel about a particular person or situation, but you are still in denial.

Inevitably, an antagonist, dragon, beast, devil or noble friend demands our unwavering commitment to that purpose. When we do, angels, guides and ancestors immediately appear to assist us to fulfill it.

When this card appears, it is time to wear your ruby red slippers, and in doing so ask yourself these questions: "Do I own my power?"; "How do I feel owning my power?"; "What do I do with my power?"; "Is how I am using my power honoring who I am?"; and, "In what ways am I afraid of owning my power"?

You have the power to do what you need to get or go where you want but before you can, it is time to face the fears that bind you.

DEMETER

Accept Feelings

Although it may feel like too much is coming to you at once, go with the flow.

Breathe in what is true for you.
Breathe out what is true for you.
Repeat. When the dance around what is emotionally honest for you lands on the full illumination of her heart's desire, align with this truth and get on with the business of setting things right accordingly.

With thought and emotion aligned, your wish is granted. After all, home is where the heart is.

DEMETER

Accept Feelings

Ask for what you want, but for now, accept what you need.

MAEVE

Self Responsibility

Go for it. Celebrate! When this card appears, the guidance sought is now being offered and it is time to step up and take control of the situation doing what you know you must to make things right in your world again.

Trust your inner-radar that encourages you to follow your intuition and begin the empowering journey of self-realization.

Do not be afraid to exert your personal will in the direction of your desires. Live with conscious awareness, self-responsibility and wholeness taking necessary steps to achieve your desired results on all levels.

Make a conscious choice to head in the direction that you are being guided towards with faith, trust and a positive attitude. Be solid, consistent and persistent in your efforts to achieve your goals and aspirations, flexible allowing for alternative options to manifest. Gratitude for guidance.

*Follow the Yellow Brick Road!
Take responsibility for how you feel and keep moving in that direction.*

MOTHER MARY

Law of Divine Father

When this card appears, it is time to release the judgments that keep you stuck in the past, so you can act in the present.

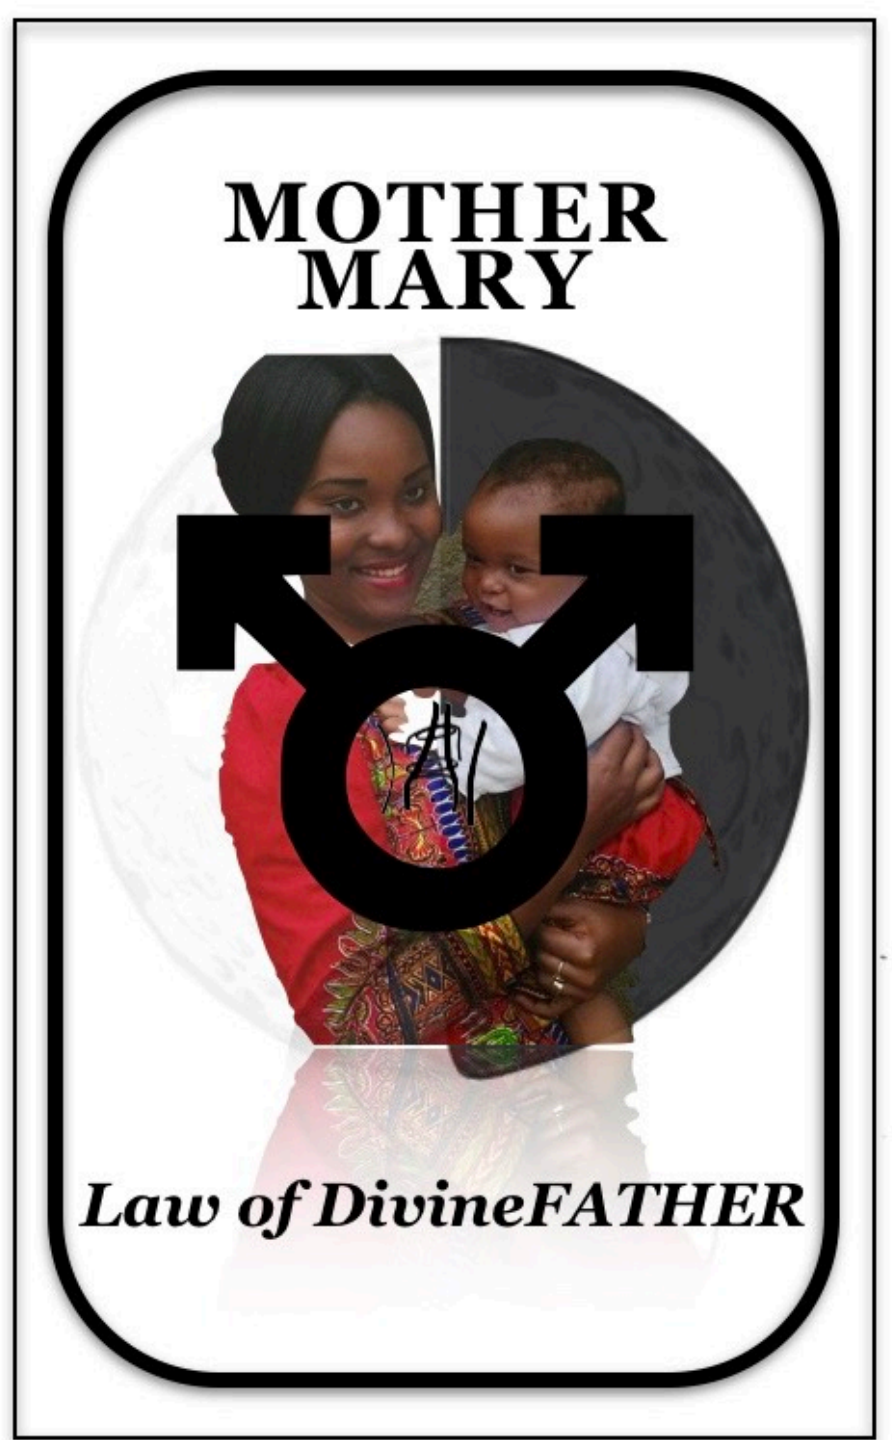

This imbalance healed by yin double yang innerGY. Recognize you are the divine child of the Great Mother Father God. As such you are perceived as equally powerful and capable to go from one extreme to the next, as you are to bring yourself back to equilibrium.

This card is a reminder you are completely equipped to live up to this expectation within your lifetime. Process this.

Because you are the product of greatness, you are great. Because you are the product of Great Mother, you can mother yourself. Because you are the offspring of Great Father your word is the law of your life.

Time to access your Inner mother, and actively initiate your Great Father energy in this pursuit. Permission is not needed.

The need to take a beat to see what is real, pay attention to how you feel, think something through.

INTEGRITY

Eternal Grace & Mercy

This card is appearing because you are ready to admit and deeply know your truth, but you cannot do it alone.

Telling ourselves the truth opens is up to feelings of love and good will.

Living in our integrity opens us up to dreams and relationships that enable us to manifest what we really want. Realize your sleeping and waking lives are one and the outer world is simply a reflection of the extend grace and mercy is experienced within

The virtue of truth elevated to telling one's self the truth. (See 'JESUS' card posted prior).

Grace and mercy is extended to us all, but receiving it is so much easier when we know we are being, living and telling our truth.

INTEGRITY

Eternal Grace & Mercy

Tell yourself the truth, then live it to the best of your ability.

SOPHIA

Inner Wisdom

The path from instinct (yellow/ gut chakra) to intuition (green/heart chakra) requires faith in what you already know for sure. The Old Negro spiritual 'Soon and Very Soon We Are Going to See the King' expresses the certainty of death and the freedom it brings. This card invites recognition that an internal death of insecurity is necessary to appreciate the enlightenment you possess in this moment about your inquired person or situation.

Great Mother (intuition, that still small voice, a dream) has shown you the way home. Though you find yourself at a fork in the road, know grace and mercy is eternal, so any path will do. Just choose and commit to one, and it will lead you right back to you.

Trust you know which way to go. The choice before you is purely cosmetic as either way will get you home.

KUAN YIN

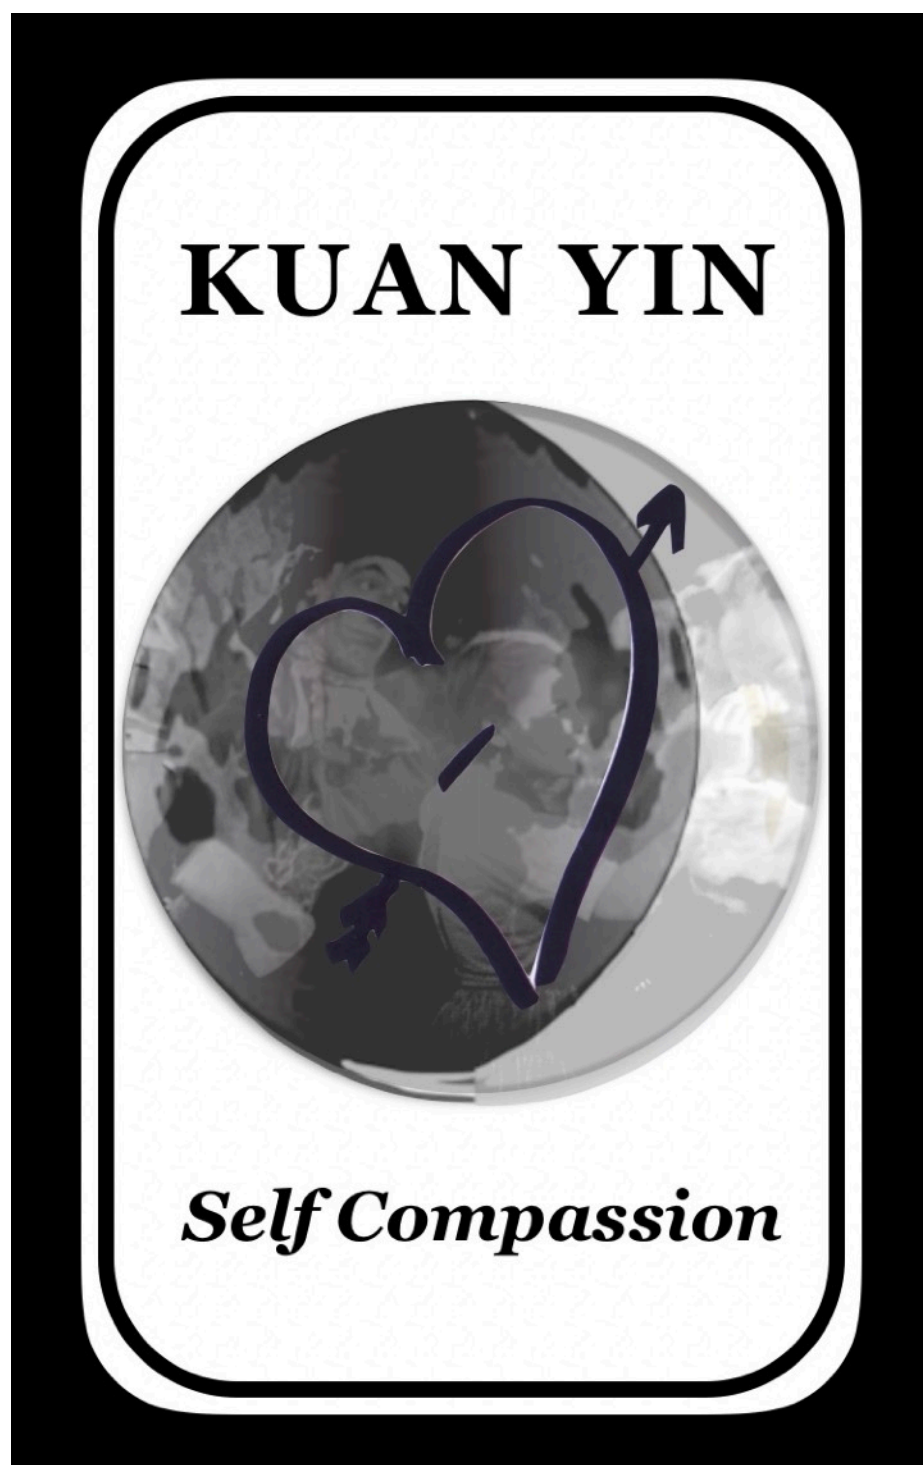

Self Compassion

Kuan Yin, "She Whose Name Alleviates All Suffering," appears to you with loving kindness reminding you to love yourself and others "As Is"—even though others may not. In this instance rational thought is not required, know you are not only "good enough," richly endowed and capable enough to do so, but Divine...

You are stretching your limits of practicing unconditional love, compassion, grace, mercy, forgiveness, kindness in your everyday life. As a result, experiencing more love as the more love and grace you offer.

Suddenly, you are working, hanging out with or becoming more intimately involved with people you ordinarily would not, and are becoming increasingly open to receiving love from expanded sources.

New friends, new vibes, new environment, to accomplish a shared goal.

YEMAYA

Surrender

Stress has a way of sneaking up on us, but regardless of how it arrives, it is here to let you know you are off balance and the equilibrium you seek is in what needs release.

Opening your heart to this may be daunting, but know peace is within reach. Do not be tempted to go back to past fears and habits that keep you trapped in past patterns. You are well protected. Ask for help from your angels, guides and ancestors to let of these addictions so you can overcome them.

Something in you wants to suffer or remain addicted to the past because the present scares you. Fight this tendency, let go of what no longer serves you and win the battle over it.

Surrender to the truth: an addiction to a default position, behavior or relationship is poisonous, toxic and an emotional vampire keeping you from your dreams.

Ask for help! The promise you made to yourself is harder to keep than thought, but you must resist reverting back to old ways.

YEMAYA

Surrender

COVENTINA

Purification

You have been baptized in the waters of purification after a long battle with negative forces. Feeling loved, appreciated, supported and protected, your second wind has kicked in to complete your journey.

The person or situation you have inquired about is preparing you to receive, or directly providing you purifying and revitalizing guidance.

Luxuriate in cool, immersing, purifying waters of Coventina to deepen your mental, emotional, physical and spiritual connection to your most vital wellbeing now.

You are being washed clean and encouraged to readjust, anticipate and revise prior plans so you can now set out to explore aspects of yourself with curiosity rather than judgement.

This self clarity will allow you to develop the life skills necessary to create a more contented and joyful life.

Rites of passage from one into a higher phase of existence, you are growing in new and unexpected ways, you never knew you had it in you.

COVENTINA

Purification

SULIS

Wellness

Boldly scale the depths of your heart and do not emerge until you ask for exactly what you want. Now, the timing is right to request the fulfillment of your truest desires, so selling out or selling yourself out is not an option.

Face up to all fears or perceived hindrances you may have. Fully delve into the depths of your thoughts, emotions, attitudes and motivations with the spiritual intent you need to heal the part of you you need to fully integrate, and that- up to now-has been too afraid to open its heart to you. Soul soothe it today without delay...

Pray knowing your prayer has already been answered, therefore expect the unexpected. Projecting you healing work onto others.

SHEILA NA GIG

Open

Heart break is the same thing as opening the heart. Heart opening expands our capacity to integrate a greater more wise part of ourselves, if we are willing.

When this card appears, you are afraid of the future and commitments you've made to it.

Calm yourself. Breathe and declare yourself sacred, holy and sanctified through the act of consciously opening your heart chakra enough to digest your broken heart.

SHEILA NA GIG

Open

*Your heart is opening and breaking at the same time.
You are game for what needs to happen to achieve your goals.
Terrified and excited.*

JESUS

Law of Soul Guidance & Guardian

No judgment or condemnation only consequences, cause and effect. Ensure cause comes from the heart, so there is unequivocal trust in your forgiving and wise heart to guide you to who and what serves your highest good.

When this card appears, welcome and embrace love and assistance that comes to you, regardless of what form it takes.

This card says you have a quality of self awareness that radiates compassion and control over your lower nature, not by force but with a balance between personal power and compassion for self and others.

You are completely supported in claiming your sincerity by those around you. Heart chakra is about relationships and the most important one is with ourselves. Release doubts or any double mindedness that may cause you to believe otherwise because it will create unnecessary conflict between what you say, do and feel. Trust your truth.

*All is well. Ask and you shall receive.
You are dearly loved as the powerful being you are.*

REBIRTH

Divine Expression

Axis throat chakra: 3rd quarter phase of moon.

This card indicates your ability to let go of the past is being challenged by those closest to you. To move forward you must decide to 1)insist you are right 2)indulge their perspective, or 3)minimize its importance in the relationship.

Freely and lovingly admit it may not be The Truth, but it is valuable to your experience, and you are recognizing it as such. You are capable of standing in the paradox of your ego:soul selves.

The big let go! Time to bite the hand that feeds you. Cut it off. A person or situation is poisoning you. You are perfecting yourself through by releasing toxicity.

Time to sacrifice the sacred cow, leave in the past.

REBIRTH

Divine Expression

BABA YAGA

Wild Woman

Someone or something is trying to scare you from following your destiny, your heart, your unique path yet is/ will be unsuccessful. Could that someone be you? Shake it off. Embrace the unknown and all your primitive responses to it! Feel alive! Breathe life in/exhale fear out.

When this card appears, you are going along to get along waiting for a particular person, relationship or situation to get better, except it never does.

The wild woman cannot be suffered so she festers inside of us until the most inappropriate time of expression. An unintegrated wild woman is easily controlled and manipulated, so the appearance of this card says use your intuition to get creative about how to best express your authentic emotions, or she will destroy you.

As a divine child of the Great Mother Father God a mere thought can diffuse fear of any kind. Focus on this Reality because sometimes the wildest part of us is the wisest.

BABA YAGA

Wild Woman

Don't be scared. Fear is not stopping you. Not today, satan!

HECATE

Crossroads

Tell yourself the truth about your values because it's time for your faith in them to be tested.

The crone of crossroads stands at the center with her hand reaching out to you in payment for crossing. Two bits, four bits, three? Maybe a daisy, a diamond, or a roast beef sandwich? A lace tablecloth, your first born, or perhaps a bottle of gin. What ever it is is up to you and time for payment is now, but the transaction is not about her.

It is about you growing faith in what you know is true for you by proving you believe in you.

You are at a juncture in your life where you must sacrifice something in order to move forward. To pass it, you need to give up something of value for something you want that is of greater value to you. In other words, your new life will cost you your old one, and it's time to pay up! You are confusing instinct or survival with intuition, your soul.

HECATE

Crossroads

No need to sacrifice your intuition for survival.

SPHINX

Face Challenge

A past judgment of a person, situation or event that no longer serves you, is now seen as a mistaken perception and acknowledging the lesson learned brings new value to someone or something previously overlooked or taken for granted in your life.

Even with such admission, and newly gained proverbial wisdom the distance traveled under this disillusionment may render course correction a challenge.

Though possible defeat looms, it must be faced in order to see what your faith, resolve and ability to go around, above and pass grievances is made of. Dissipate them all in an instant with the simple thought, "I've come too far to turn back now!"—knowing you truly have.

SPHINX

Face Challenge

*Feeling trapped, confused. Time to decide to make things right.
Not knowing what to do.*

OSIRIS/HORUS

Death/Rebirth

When this card appears it's time to do what's best for you by sacrificing something of value for something of greater value! It is time to trust your highest and greatest good is guided, supported and protected enough for you to release a person or situation which no longer serves it. In your heart you know this, the confirmation you need is forthcoming, but the time to act is now.

Though the deed you must do to free yourself is yours alone, it is bearable with support and knowing your reward is an eternal flame that will light the way for many.

By dousing the witch with water, Dorothy is reborn through toxic emotional release, spirit purification and self redemption: courage, mind and heart aligned.

OSIRIS/HORUS

Death & Rebirth

Time to let it go, sacrifice the sacred cow. You are or have let go.

BRIGHID

Selfhood

Dorothy is blessed by verbally asserting her power and is given the broomstick to prove it.

Just as the three Brighids are regarded typically as three aspects of a single deity, making her a classic Celtic triple goddess, at the moment Dorothy kills the wicked witch, she too becomes a triple goddess of inspiration; integrating courage, intelligence and heart and bringing them into full illumination in this single act!

You reap what you sow; midwifery; maiden, mother and crone; wholeness.

BRIGHID

Selfhood

Own what is yours. Time to take your power back!
This situation has ran its course.

NEFERTITI

Own Your Beauty

Even though only you, and those who've traveled this path with you truly know the effort it cost to earn what you have and who you now know yourself to be, its now time to fully own it in the world.

Hold your broom up high! It is proof you have killed the witch, the dragon, blessed the inner demon who faithfully held your power for you until you could. Phallic symbol, yang~ proudly acknowledge all of it, cost the count and real time value before exchanging it again.

NEFERTITI

Own Your Beauty

Take what is yours with grace and without apology. Shine, be glad and of great cheer! Fully use all that is yours to get what you need.

ANDROGYNE

Law of Destiny & Free Will

You have no need for approval, so stop looking for it.

Know that it is time for you to clearly be and speak your truth even if it means sacrificing the sacred cow. You must do so to defend your unique divine expression on earth. Pray for and receive the clarity, balance and confirmation you seek.

Guilt does not serve you here. Do you. If you don't know what that is in this situation, you will soon be taken on a soul stirring journey to find out.

You cannot create the life you want until you accept the one you have.

Breathe deeply, allow and accept what you have created in your life thus far realizing what is and what is not negotiable in your pursuit.

The divinity in "Do You," Defend your birthright, Sacrifice the Sacred Cow, what you do and what you say are the same thing.

EMANCIPATION

Breathe

Third eye chakra, third quarter moon axis intersection of where intuition takes over survival instinct. Once you learn how to observe your thoughts, you realize you are not your thoughts, but The Observer of them. This freedom is offered in the balsamic moon sixth chakra card.

Serenity Prayer. Heart above and below integration. Slow down to see with your 1st eye (commonly called the 3rd eye) more easily.

Walk the healing out in real life by consciously integrating your shadow side. Grieving the past through Loving Detachment allowing yourself and others to love you the best way they can. Self appointed Spiritual Independence – taking responsibility for your own life by knowing the difference between The Observer versus The Doer.

EMANCIPATION

Breathe

*You have arrived. You are home free! Freedom and self responsibility.

MAYA

Illusion

In the world of illusion, it is easy to get caught up in illusion. You can always return to truth. Listen to yourself and take action accordingly. When this card appears, only you know what is right for you and only you can make it so.

Wholeness is nurtured when you accept where you are and forgive yourself, become aware of the illusion, then consciously lift the veil to experience the reality. the answer, ask yourself, "AM I running from fear, or following my bliss

"Sensing and Seeing" beyond and within your life's greatest trauma or challenge. You have received this card as a reminder to manage your recovery from it with the full expectation associated past grievances can be triggered by/or projected onto others.

*Trust what you see, state the obvious to move pass the illusion.
Listen to yourself and take action accordingly.*

INANNA

Embrace the Shadow

Face it. Embrace it.

Shame and guilt only keeps you stuck in the past.

Admit what you do not want the world to know about you to yourself. You belong to you. Know who you are.

Ignoring or denying your shadow side only gives others the power to it lord over you. Hiding behind trying to fulfill the needs of others in lieu of your own doesn't work either.

Shine and see the shadow you cast, but don't let it dull your light or be afraid to laugh out loud at yourself.

Remember, there's a reason humiliation, humility, humor...and human are related.

INANNA

Embrace the Shadow

Love yourself for who and what you are.

MA'AT

Justice

It's the end of the road you've been traveling, now, seemingly a road leading nowhere. Where a clear path was promised, a dead end now stands before you. You are tired, lost, angry and afraid you have run out of options.

It doesn't look good, but don't dismay, your faith has saved you! You're still on your way home, but by new means. Justice is righting the scales of your journey thus far calling you to take a beat and reflect upon all you've accomplished on it to regain equilibrium.

Soon, you will have the clarity and confirmation you need to take your next steps. Refreshed by the calm, cool, confident inner eye of reality, you know giving up is not an option. When there is a will, there is way

You are mad because you have been deceived and demand justice.

RA

Primordial Father

Well done! Suddenly you receive your just reward. You know you have worked long and hard, and from all appearances it did not seem anyone noticed, but you have been noticed and will be justly compensated for the work and effort you have put towards serving your life purpose.

For others, you have rightly used your personal will, passion, enthusiasm and joy that is inside you to express or fulfill your soul mission. Keep a positive and optimistic attitude and outlook and be grateful and appreciative for all that you have, and all you are yet to receive not forgetting to share as only you know how.

If your rewards are yet to be seen, be open to receiving and accepting your 'good'. Remember, all is spirit before it manifests in the physical.

You are, or will soon be receiving your just rewards.

GYLDEPTIS

Synthesis

When this card appears everything is coming together. You are either drawing the perfect solution to you or it has arrived by means completely unexpected

Everyone's talking at once and everything feels out of control, but remain the calm observer of the signs and symbols around you. You know it is time to filter from the bevy and abundance of activity what most needs integration to create inner harmony.

Despite what others think, do what you know is best for you. Know the difference between noise and knowledge.

Whatever your body's pattern – trust that it is right for you.

GYLDEPTIS

Synthesis

*Everything is coming together, but wait for confirmation;
the answer to your prayer is imminent.*

TARA

Centering

We have power over illusion. Instead of using your energy to fear relapse, which may very well happen, use the better half of your mental and emotional resources to be self compassionate. Self love and spiritual independence is essential to reframing your experience and eventually emancipating your life from it.

Stop waiting for healing and reclaim your wholeness/holiness in realtime. Life's illusions are created to seem real, but once realized there's a big difference between forcing one's truth and reframing it to integrate The Truth.

Recovery is a Series of Relapses into blame, shame and getting hooked into high stakes emotional games. The miraculous shift in focus Dorothy experienced of her life on the farm, upon her return from Oz, is the same eternal instant we all have.

Keep going. You're intuition has brought you this far. Don't stop.

Imagine you are home now. You are safe and secure in all your need.

ANKH

Law of Ego Form & Manifestation

Time to make your own dream come true! Stop waiting to be rescued, or for someone else to come along and save you in any way, or recognize that is exactly what is occurring and say, "Thank you!" to this kind, divine soul.

Trust your inner-radar, follow your intuition and continue your empowering journey of self-realization.

Be it through your own effort, or the assistance of another, you now have everything you need. Intuitively tap into this vast reservoir and allow your spiritual gifts to open and expand through prayer into the reality you imagine.

You are encouraged to step into your own personal power, live your life as you wish it to be lived, and stay positive and loving. Live your life with truth, honor and integrity, and discern things for yourself using your own perceptions and insights.

Breathe in gratitude; breathe out anger. Breathe in the new; breathe out the old. Breathe in loving support; exhale illusions of sin and separation. Welcome home!

*Harvest. Relax. Breathe. Stay focused, balanced and at peace within.
You are home.*

ANGELS

Living in Loving Detachment

The double Yin Yang/Crown chakra axis card points to where we are being guided and supported through our imagination in our present experience to easily and effortlessly integrate clarity, balance, and intuitive confirmation. The double Yin and Yang symbol indicates one guardian angel for the ego and the other for the soul ensures our success with them as long as we remember working with our angels is always a 50-50 deal.

By using your intuitive and physical senses, you have diligently and effectively balanced your life beyond and within this world. Soul contracts manifested in physical form.

When this card appears our Angels are helping us to live in loving detachment — doing our part to release thoughts, ideas, judgments and beliefs that cause us suffering. Where we are weak, the angels assist our growth in knowing we are in this world but not of it freeing us up to live our divine expression. Talk to your angels so they can help you lovingly detach from fear.

You are doing your best to honor your soul agreements and have/are evolving accordingly.
